It is SO... important to make healthy disciples who love God & people and also share the Gospel. Z baptized around 10 years ago but at that time she did not have relationship with Jesus and did not understand the meaning of baptism. Because of her spouse's work she moved to Mexico City with her family. She joins our activities and studies the Scripture with us. Later, she confessed and accepted Christ as personal Saviour. The Lord transforms her life and makes her a faithful witness to her family & friends. She invites her sister & friends to join our virtual gatherings and shares what she learnt from the Bible with friends. I can serve in Mexico City because of your prayer and support to Global Advance Fund. We are serving together to make healthy disciples (like Z) in Mexico City. Praise the Lord!

The workshop went well on the afternoon of October 19th. I am grateful for couple Christians and you served with us together for the workshop. A brother in Christ designed the beautiful & meaningful flyer, a Christian counsellor shared how to live a positive life in the COVID world and your sincere prayer. 6 ladies joined the gathering, 3 are Christians and 3 are non-Christians. Praise the Lord!

They are international workers of the Mexico City team. I am grateful to serve with them to make healthy disciples in Mexico City in various ministries, such as, International Church, church planting, discipleship & compassion, etc. We pray together and support one another.
