On September 7, a magnitude 7.0 earthquake struck near the city of Acapulco. Shaking was felt as far as Mexico City. My friends & colleagues are fine with a shock.

On Mission is a book with 3 volumes which cover the stories of Canadian Alliance international workers to celebrate the redeeming work of God and provide some accountability to the people of God who faithfully provided sons and daughters, finances and prayer, for the mission of God. The free PDF downloads for all three are on the <https://www.cmacan.org/resources/on-mission/>. You can order all three there. Makes a nice hostess gift! And Christmas is coming!

THANKSGIVING & PRAYER

[1] Lisa is divorced and looking for the meaning of life. She joins our virtual service regularly. She has good impression for the faith and Christians, but it is too difficult for her to believe the existence of God because she grew up by the influence of atheism. Pray for the Holy Spirit will open her eyes to see the glory of God.

[2] Recently Zee moved back to her hometown. She is living with her mother and starts a new chapter. Pray for her to settle well & job hunting.

[3] I am thankful to share through videos & article with Windsor Chinese Alliance Church & Westside Calgary Chinese Alliance Church for their mission conferences.

*[4] I stay with my family almost a month. I am so grateful to spend time with my family, relatives & friends. I have great moment to have virtual bible study & service with my friends in Mexico City. I did some tests and wait for the results. Pray for medical results.
