The Concilio is suspended over 2 years because of the pandemic. Praise the Lord. It is held in Huatulco last Tuesday to Friday. I am grateful to attend with my Mexico teammates and had fellowship with Mexican pastors, brothers & sisters in person. Two pastors shared the word of God on the mornings & evenings and business sessions on the afternoons.

I am grateful for the donation from my friends to help local people.

THANKSGIVING & PRAYER

[1] We have virtual service every Saturday night via zoom. BUT one night ALL foreign websites/applications are blocked from my friends' host country. They could not join the service because of the unexpected situation. I did not know how to solve the problem. BUT they advised me to use the other way to hold the service. Praise the Lord it worked. I am grateful for their hunger to worship God. Pray for us to have smooth virtual service via zoom every Saturday night.

[2] Mee left her home town & is back to the city where she stayed before. She is despair because of difficult situation. Pray for her to get closer to our divine Comforter.

[3] Ming & his wife So came to Mexico City to work 3 months ago. Their 2-years old son is living in their host country. They are learning Basic Spanish with me. Pray for their life in Mexico City and friendship buildup with me.

[4] We will have virtual discussion session on this Friday (29th) at 9-10 a.m. (Mexico time). Rev. Jimmy Zhen (Chinese Family For Christ) will answer some questions from the attendees about life, marriage & parenting. Pray for the attendees who will know Jesus Christ more and Rev. Zhen.

[5] Pray for the pastors & leaders of the Alliance Family in Mexico who have strength & wisdom to serve during the pandemic.

[6] Pray for God opens the door for Mexico team to partner with national church to reach the least reached people groups in Mexico & the world.

[7] I will have virtual sharing with Carmel Fellowship from my home church (Cornerstone Chinese Alliance Church) on the evening of 31st.

[8] Pray for me to have good ear to listen well and strength & courage to do what God wants me to do.
