

Women's Group

The women of Riyad Church meet every Saturday afternoon for a time of prayer, mutual encouragement, and Bible study.

These faithful women fall into a range of life circumstances. Some are married with children while others are single. A few work outside the home but most are unemployed. Some are literate and some are not. Regardless of their individual situations, these women are courageous and steadfast.

This month we started a study on the book of Romans.

Please pray with us for:

- a deepening knowledge and experience of Jesus
- boldness in the sharing of the Gospel

- a fresh outpouring of the Holy Spirit
- unity and love

Thank you for praying for these precious sisters in Christ.
