

Homestretch

After three years, our current NVOC students are in their final month of training!

The Niger government ministry in charge of sewing centres has set the national sewing exam for June 22, 23 and 24.

Students will be tested on sewing on June 22, the second day will be on knitting, crocheting, and embroidery and the third day will focus on their knowledge of home management (potable water, food safety, childcare, and general hygiene).

As you can imagine, the students are excited yet stressed!

Please pray for these 21 students with us:

- that these final few weeks of revision would solidify all that they have learned
- that they would have peace
- that they would be able to perform with excellence despite the heat (rainy season hasn't arrived quite yet so our days are still hot and humid)
- that God would reward them with success

Thank you for upholding these precious young ladies in prayer,
Cecilia & Ace
